AIT HIL Controller Documentation

Documentation related to AIT HIL Controller is listed here:

- Component help (short description) (open this document)
- Step by Step (short description) (open this document)
- Additional files (short description) (open this document)
- AIT RCP Instructions (short description) (open this document)

Component Help
This document provides detailed component description of the SGC component, lists Typhoon HIL requirements and contains information on IO mapping.

Step by Step
This document describes the process of running a simple Controller Hardware-In-the-Loop example using HILCompatible device.

Additional files
This document contains short description of files located in additional files folder.

AIT RCP Instructions
This document gives short instructions for running RCP Example.